Powder for Pigeons (AUS)

As fate would have it, 2013 had a magnetic pull that would bring Australian singer and guitarist Rhys and female German drummer Meike from opposite ends of the earth together. In a way that is dowsed in a whole lotta love and the desire to create a wall of rock and filth. The nature of this beast was to rear it's head which resulted in the birth of Powder for Pigeons ... this is how it all unfolded.

Drawing Inspiration from the rugged surroundings of the hot and dusty back drop of Western Australia, the Power Duo has crafted a gigantic sound that fills the frequency spectrum with punchy, warm, low, dirt driven guitar riffery and thumpin drums to be heard for miles around. With a solid dose of powerful melodic vocal hooks and a tastefully structured song writing their approach is often reminiscent of 90s alternative band icons such as Helmet, Queens of the Stoneage, Monster Magnet, Faith no more. A blistering dynamic live show that will lead you through plains, valleys and mountain tops with a full sonic assault and attitude to burn - this two piece has a presence of a five man band (Nocturnal Hall Magazine).

Successfully pursuing the DIY approach, the two have stamped their brand of raw and filthy two piece power to their ever growing fan base in over ten countries. They have shared stages with Soulfly, Graveyard, Sepultura, Melvins, Clutch, to name a few. Having played festivals such as Czad Festiwal (PL), Freak Valley (D), Up in Smoke (CH), Stoned from the Underground (D), Desertfest, Ölesummer (EST), Poolbar Festival (AT), Dutch Doom Days (NL) among many others, underlines Powder for Pigeons status as one of the scene's most exciting up and coming acts.

This year Powder for Pigeons will be blasting their fourth album „Circus Kinda Times“ over stages around Europe. Smashing a raw and intense live set "that takes stoner rock to new heights" (Doomed and Stoned).

So würden die Kritiker reagieren, wenn sie Instant Karma kennen würden. Dabei handelt es sich um eine Alternative-Rockband aus Salzburg, die es seit Anfang 2015 gibt.

Die Gründung der Band war der Beginn einer wunderbaren Bromance zwischen vier Typen, die sich ganz und gar der Musik verschrieben haben. Das Ergebnis dieser Liaison ist bahnbrechend und atemberaubend. Instant Karma hebt sich deutlich vom Einheitsbrei der Pop-Szene und dem gewohnten Alternative Rock ab.

Starke Riffs, mörderische Beats, knackiger Bass und virtuoser Gesang machen die Gruppe zu den Power Rangers der Rock-Gegenwart. Als Beweis steht die Demo-EP „War on Stupidity“ schon in den Startlöchern.
