Ufomammut (IT)

in this year 2019, Ufomammut is celebrating 20 years as a band. The trio was formed in February of 1999 by Poia, Urlo and Vita in a small room in the middle of nowhere in Italy. The idea was to survive the boredom of living in a little town while also having the intention of creating music to spread all around the globe. After eight albums, plenty of tours, festivals and kilometers on the road, the band is ready to celebrate this important anniversary event with their marvelous and loyal fans with a special European tour this spring.

Throne (IT)

are the nice fusion of darkness and heaviness of sludge and doom metal. THRONE was born to defeat and break the hope of every people reached by their sludge. Throne was born in the 2012 under the influence of alcohol from the most disadvantaged bars. In the same year, the Italian combo hits the first full length "Avoid the Light" produced by Moonlight Records. The quintet combines sharp riffs, powerful and dark themes into a sludge-core look like Louisiana swamp, with doom and stoner pills to make it dark and depraved. After five years of live show around Europe with bands such as Weedeater, The Secret, Hierophant, Black Cobra, Bison BC, Saturnalia Temple, Forgotten Tomb, Enthroned, Schammasch, Ufomammut and Caronte, in 2017, Throne returns to the studio to recording new album produced by Black Bow Records and Endless Winter. "Consecrates" is a mature, iconoclastic and full-fledged anti-religious anger album.
